Hon. Mr. Packer, of Pennsylvania, member of Congress from Reeder's district, visited Washington last Hon. Mr. Packer, of Pennsylvania, member of Congress from Reeder's district, visited Washington last week, with a view to arranging all the Governor's difficulties; but he proved a slow team, if not an old fogy. In fact, after he saw both sides of the question, his ardor cooled down, and he quietly returned to his home. Steps have been taken to induce Governor R to resign; but this he respectfully deslines to do, replying that he does not care a d -n for the position, but that his investments in Indian lands require his presence in the new Territory. In this, however, the President has the honor to differ with him, as well as Secretaries Dobbin and Guthrie, who are as bitterly opposed to his centinuance in office as Secretary Davis.

Yesterday, a quasi cancus of influential Pennsylvanians was called at the White House, for the purpose of considering the Governor's case. Mr. Streeter, the able Solicitor of the Treasory, and several others were in atteadance, and all the documents in the several bureaux touching official speculations in Kannas, were laid before them. I will only add that Governor Reeder will not return to Kannas—and that Judges Johnson and Ellmore, and United States District Attorney, Isaac, will all go by the board.

It is a little remarkable that the correspondence between Governor Reeder and Commissioner Manypenny was never seen, much less read, by the President of the United States until within the last day or two. A perusal of this correspondence fixed him in his determination to make a clean turn in Kannas officials, and arrest, if possible, the demoralizing tendences of official speculation in that much injured Territ ory.

The Legislature of Kansas meets on the 2d day of July, and the Secretary of the Territory, who is now acting Governor, will send in the annual measage. A new appointee would barely have time now to reach the seat of government before the session commences.

The Case of Lyman Cole, the Atleged Bank Forger. COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS. THE ALLEGED CONTEMPT CASE.

Before Recorder Smith. June 13 -The Cole case came up this morning, pursuant to adjournment. The names of the jury were called, and all the jurors found to be present. The ac-called, and all the jurors found to be present. The accused and his counsel, Mr. Basteed, were in attendance.

The Recorder, addressing bimself to the District Attorney, said he had received a letter from one of the counsel in this case, stating that he could not attend the trial of it to day. In view, he continued of what has already occurred in the cause, and as the prisoner should not be prejudiced by apt toing his counsel may have done, I deem it proper that this cause should stand adjourned till to-morrow morning.

The District Attorney—a great deal of the public time has already been occupied in the trial of this case. The trial of Kiesane occupied eight days, and the former trial of Cole occupies six days. Two or three days of the public time have already been consumed, and it will probably take a x or eight days more. Mr. Whiting, who is engaged with me in the prosecution, has another engagement next Mordsy, and there are several other cases set down for that day, at which it is important that I should be personally present. Bestics, the other counsel for the prisoner may be engaged in some other cause, and although I should be very happy to see him in this case—and it is the first time in my life! was ever glad to see him in any case—still he may be otherwise engaged, and more time be consumed. Under these circumstances! I would prefer to withdraw a juror, and let this cause go off.

The Recorder—Can this be done without the consent of the counsel for the accuse!, Send for Archboid's Pleadings. I will allow the motion to withdraw the juror.

Mr. Busteed—If the Court please, I object to the with-Pleadings. I will allow the motion to withdrawal of the juror.

Mr. Busteed—If the Court please, I object to the withdrawal of the juror.

The Recorder—Sit down, sir; there is no motion before the Court.

Mr. Busteed—There is a motion before the Court in respect to the withdrawal of a juror. My associate is not the counsel in this case. I am the counsel for Lyman Cole, and as such I protest against the withdrawal of a juror. We are ready to be tried, and claim to be tried before this jury.

Mr. Busteed—Your honor will please note my excep-

The Recorder—You may make any exception you have a mind to.

Mr. Busteed—I have no other exception to make now. Before the durmisal of the jury I wish the Court to note an exception to sumsthing that occurred yesterday. I refer to the Court preventing one of the counsel in this case, (Mr. Fairbanks.) from being beard in respect to a motion which he endeavored to make pertinent to this case, affecting the rights of the accused.

District Attorney—As public prosecutor, I stand somewhat in the relation of counsel for the accused, and while I hold the office I never will try an indictment under these circumstances; and in this case, if Mr. Busteed is to be the counsel—

Mr. Busteed—Nr. Hall, do I understand that you will not try this indictment at all?

District Attorney—I have stated what I have stated. The Jury were here discharged by the Recorder, and Mr. Hall then stated that he never would try Lyman Coie on that indictment: that there were other indictments against him on which he Wothl proceed.

Mr. Busteed—It is not fair, if the Court please, for the District Attorney to speak of other indictments there.

The Hecerder—I shall hear no more arguments on the subject.

In Hecoroter—I shall flam sure you are too much of a gen:leman to make any attack upon me in any place, where by the power of the Court I am prevented from replying to you. Do you mean you will try the other indictments for the same forgery?

this.

Mr. Busteed—Don't you mean an indictment for the forgery on the Chemical Bank? Is there an indictment for any other fergery?

District Attorney—I mean that indictment.

Mr. Busteed—We are ready to be tried now upon that

District Attorney—We shall not try it now.

Mr. Busteed—When will you try it, Mr. Hall?
District Attorney—We shall not try it now.

Mr. Busteed—When will you try it, Mr. Hall?
District Attorney—I cannot tell you to-day.

Mr. Busteed—Will you try it this term?

District Attorney—I cannot tell you to-day.

Mr. Busteed—If the Court please, I sak that the District Attorney be obliged to assign some day for the trial of Mr. Cole on the other indictment in respect to the same forgery? I sak it, because the defendant has witnesses who reside a thousand miles from here, who are now in Court, and who have attended twice before. I sak it in justice to Mr. Cole, who is ready to be tried, and who has laid in prison for some sine montas.

The Recorder—I shall make no order in respect to the maiter. The District Attorney must arrange his own business.

Mr. Busteed—In respect to the alleged contempt, of which it is claimed I am guilty, the Court said that it would hear that after the termination of the Cole trial. The Recorder—I will hear nothing on the subject till they are filed?

Mr. Busteed—No, sir.

The Recorder—I will hear nothing on the subject till they are filed?

Mr. Busteed—No asturday, and would like to have the case heard on some other day, either earlier or later, as you may fix

The Recorder—Very well. Let it be Monday of next week.

Mr. Busteed—Within four hours from this time, if the Court will allow it, I will give the District Attorney notice if I wish to have it deferred till Monday. where they will, it is believed, undergo their trial.

The innocent and unfortunate Felix on the evening of 31st ult received information that he was to embark next morning for Cadiz. A friend of mine was visiting him when he was told this by two friends who came to the Punta Castle to see him, and who had obtained the information from the guardias-civil who had come to secort him. Taken somewhat by surprise by the infor-mation given him, poor Felix instantly requested my friend to go to the acting United States Consul, Colonel Robertsen, and say he (Felix) wished to see him.

Colonel Robertson had that afternoon undergone an operation, the tonsils in his throat having become enoperation, the tonsils in his throat having become enlarged, and he was consequently unable to leave his residence; he, however, despatched the Secretary of the United State Consulste, Thomas Savage, Esq., to visit Felix, who at four o'clock next morning was taken charge of by a comisario and two guardias-civil, and marched on board the Spanish ship Nueva Apolo, which immediately set sail for Cadiz. Perchance Mr. Marcy, being by this time satisfied that Felix is a citizen of the United States, may instruct our Minister at Madrid, Mr. Augustus Crear Dodge, to demand that Felix shall not Augustus Czerar Dodge, to demand that Felix shall not be sent to Ceuta, he not having been tried according to

The Governor of Matanzas, Col. Ona, died recently. Previous to his being in extremis, the attendant priest, Padre Martinez, wished the dying man to confess, which, however, he refused to do, stying he had been for many years a Protestant. When he died, the priest refused to any his body in consecrated ground. The telegraph was employed to inform the Bishop of this circumstance, who, of course, confirmed the decision of the priest. The deceased colonel, however, being a general favorite at Matanzas, especially among the militia, quite an uproar was occasioned, and threats were used, which being communicated to Gen. Concha. he was pleased to order that the body of the deceased should be buried in the consecrated ground.

A friend of mine from Matanzas, however, informed me, the evening before last, that the sons of Col. Ona had become so disgusted at the intolerant spirit that had been exhibited by the clergy, that they had the hody of their lather embalmed, and determined it should not be buried at all in Cuba.

The Gocact of yesterday contains a republication of the law of the loth June, 1847, for the protection of literary property. The cause of this republication, as is generably believed here, is amusing enough.

New York Cattle Market.

Wednesday, June 13, 1855.

At Allerton's Washington Drove Yard there has been a fair supply of beeves during the week, but with a limited demand; prices have receded $1 a $2 per 100 lbs. The quality of the cattle in market, generally, was inferior, and some 300 or 400 were left over, unsold. Strong efforts were made by sellers to sustain prices, but with a slack de aand; they were of but little avail, and none but extra cattle approximat, ed last week's quotations. The high prices ruling for some time past have had the effect to bring quite a number of cattle from Tenas, and this fact has no doubt contributed from tenas, and this fact has no doubt contributed temewhat to the decline, but there is yet plenty of room for lower prices. Our present quotations vary from $5 to $11 50 per 100 lbs. It is very little use to speculate as to the causes of these hish prices. The fact itself stares us in the face; and whether we think the demand for such rates extortion or not, we can not his pourselves by declaiming against their causeisanses. A dealer suggests, and we are inclined to attach some value to he recommendation, that eastle can be imported from Veneruela and other accessible sections of South America, and pay a fine profit, at the rates ruling here at present. There they are so picuty as to be valued only for their hides, and many thousands are annually killed for that jurpose on 19. Now, here is an opportunity to relieve our necessible in vertby of considerations on the part of thous able to undertune another the aggregate, to 23 19 head. Cows and calves were scarce and hisher than for many years.

IMPORTANT TO HASTINGERS.

At Hartford, Coun, there is a company called the Union Con pary, said to have been chartered in 1800, to deepen the Connection triver. Said company at the onset part some stone piers in the river, and some of them (so I have been told, are now on the opposite side of the river, from which they were placed, and are nearly all of them oevered with water, and none of them are buoyed, so that unless you are well acquainted you will have to hire a pilot to keep your vessel of of them, (and be careful, for there are Jows in the river pilot business), and then you have to pay said company ten dollars toll if your vessel draws over all feet air inches of water each way So much for the privilege of soing up said river. Yours truly, G. B. FATTINGELL,

Master of schooner Orion, of Franklin, Me.
